MONDAY, MAY 18, 1857.

Mr. Pryor, the able and spirited editor of the Richmond South, professes to feel very certain that Kansas will be a free State and anticipates that this result will be fearfully disastrous to the slavery cause in general. He says:

As when a city capitulates after an obstinate and bloody resistance, it is delivered up to military license and the rage of vengeance, so will Kansas suffer from the excesses of the anti-slavery resentment which has been provoked in the progress of the recent struggle. The anti-slavery majority in the State, being composed, not of industrious and law-abiding immigrants, but of the fanatical emissaries of New England, enlisted and disciplined for the work of propagating abolitionism, will be imthe work of propagating abolitionism, will be impelled, as well by the circumstances of their situation as the instincts of their nature, to press forward upon the career of conquest which they have initiated with so signal a triumph.

Kansas will become an outpost of abolitionism, carrisoned by the most relentless, adventurous, and Kansas will become an outpost of abolitionism, garrisoned by the most relentless, adventurous, and fearless spirits which may be rallied in support of the cause. The first blow will fall upon Missouri, whose frontier lies open to the ravages of the enemy, and whose power of resistance is enfeebled by domestic distraction and disaffection. With Illinois on one flank, Kansas on another, and "emancipation" triumphant and defant in the heart of the State, Missouri will fall an easy and early prey to antislavery propagandism. It will be so—no power can prevent the catastrophe—if Kansas is lost to the South.

But that is not all, or the worst. The anti-slavery stronghold of slave-

Kentucky and Tennessee, to the stronghold of Slavery in the Atlantic States of the South.

Meanwhile, other abolition forces from New England, in the disguise of free labor colonies, will be operating directly upon Maryland and Virginia; and so hemmed in by a constantly contracting circle, slavery must ultimately expire of its own internal pressure and suffocating weight, even if it does not first fall under some assault of violence.

This is no hazardous prophecy. It is only tracing the connexion between visible causes and inevitable effects. Such is the doom of slavery unless the South resolve in season to intercept the catastrophe, by some adequate measure of protection. What is that?

The editor does not answer his own question as to the adequate measure of protection. We presume however that his hint is at a dissolution of the Union. He may rest well assured that Kentucky and Missouri would not go with him in favor of any such insane policy, for they could not fail to see that a dissolution of the Union would go to exterminate slavery within their limits rather than to protect and maintain it.

For our own part we do not exactly see how the making of Kansas a free State would destroy slavery in Missouri. Missouri's Kansas frontier is not nearly so extensive as her Illinois frontier and not more extensive than her Iowa frontier, and we suppose that Illinois and Iowa abolitionists are nearly as pestilent as any other abolitionists.

FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS REWARD .- The proprietors of the New York Times, in their issue of Thursday, offer a reward of five thousand dollars to any person or persons who will furnish them information which shall lead to the detection and conviction of the murderer or murderers of Dr. Harvey Burdell. The proprietors of the Times say that gation last week in one of the New Orleans courts they are prompted to this course by a profound conviction that the regular authorities of the city and State cannot be relied on for such action as the interests of the people demand at their hands, and that others, be found the truest representative and most faithful guardian of the public welfare.

This is a first-rate advertisement for the Times!

HIGH PRICE FOR NEGROES .- At Marion, Perry county, Ala., on Monday, the 4th inst., two negroes snug sum of four thousand and seventy-five dollars.

Mr. C. Simons, of this city, is making arrangements to establish a large foundry and machine shop at Vincennes.

[For the Louisville Bulletin.] Dear Mr. Prestice: A friend presented me the other day with the Journals containing the beautiful poems of "Alice" and "Henrie" and your exquisite reply to the former. Will you permit me to add one more leaf to the glorious garland that already encircles your brow—simple, 'tis true, but "pure and ever-living?"

Oh the wine-cup gleams with a ruby light, And rich is the sunset's glow, Yet the last soon fades in the gloom of night, And the other in darker woe; And the glorious tints of the "cloud-land shore," And the palace of "pearl and fire," With the murmuring sea and the "silver beach,"

What tho', in the festal halls of wealth, Have gathered the fair and proud— The miser-world to its idol—gold Has ever the lowliest bowed! And thou may'st smile with the careless throng, And quaff their blood-red wine But never a charm, thou king of song, Holds the cup for a soul like thine.

Are dreams that with morn-expire

Then heed not "Alice" nor "Henrie's" strain, Tho' soft their murmurings be, But plume thine eagle-pinions again-For a loftier flight with me; And I will give thee a grasp and a "sign," As we float to our starry bowers, And whisper a word that is only known To kindred souls like ours.

Oh come! each radiant star as we pass, With its music wild and sweet, Shall sweep o'er the glittering waves of light As they thrill beneath our feet— And spirits of flame shall herald our name, As the pearly gates unfold, And together we'll enter the "city of heaven,"

And there we'll drink of that living stream, That flows from the "great white throne." As our angel-pinions quiver and gleam With a bliss to earth unknown—
And a glorious crown, with its starry rays, Shall encircle thy "poet-brow," And the golden harp be thine, whose lays Whose streets are paved with gold.

BIRDSNEST COTTAGE, Nashville, Feb. 21.

It is the practice of Mr. Bonner to make the article he advertises superior to any other of this kind, and then he advertises with a perfect looseness. Were the Ledger an inferior paper of its class, we do not think that his advertising would be of much benefit. His advertisements make the people buy the Ledger, and its superiority over all others makes people keep buying it. Bonner has for contributors all the leading intellects of the day. He pays them fabulous amounts for their articles, and monopolizes their writings. He has the best talent in the country at his command. No sooner does any star appear in a different part of the literary firmament than Mr. Bonner hastens to make it a fixed star in the Ledger horizon.

George D. Prentice of the Louisville Journal, one of the wittiest writers of the Cay, is now engaged for the New York Ledger.

We have also heard that Fitz Green Halleck, the greatest of American poets, is hesitating whether or not to reappear with poetical pen of world-wide renown, and gratify the millions of readers of the Ledger. Thus Mr. Bonner make his Ledger worth advertising.

We copy the paragraph above from a leading

Philadelphia paper; partly in justice to the singularly enterprising editor of the New York Ledger plete and gratifying success. and partly to prevent the circulation of any erroneous impression in regard to ourselves. Bonner, of ronage it receives. It is a prodigy among-papers as he is among editors.

It is true that we have undertaken to furnish weekly a half column of pleasant and amusing paragraphs for the Ledger, but our readers must not suppose that any portion of our time will on that account be abstracted from the Louisville Journal, which we are determined to render the leading political journal of the country if it is not so already. Our labors for the Ledger will scarcely cost us more than an hour per week, but we shall take great pleasure in performing them and endeavor to make them acceptable to the host of Bonner's patro nearly as large as the army of Xerxes.

PUBLIC MEETING CONDEMNATORY OF THE MOB OF THURSDAY NIGHT .- We warmly approve of the movement on foot among our citizens to give some fitting public expression to that feeling of deep and earnest condemnation of the awful proceedings of But that is not all, or the worst. The anti-slavery movement will increase in momentum at each step of its progress; for every success will multiply its resources, and stimulate it to yet more audacious enterprises. From the vantage ground of Kansas, it will be enabled to subdue slavery in Missouri. The conquest of Missouri will open the way through Kentucky and Tennessee, to the stronghold of slave-kentucky and Tennessee, to the stronghold of slave-kentucky and Tennessee. last Thursday night which so visibly pervades the responsible for the acquittal under the law, both misconceive. It is urgently demanded. The honor, security, and welfare of our city imperatively call for it. We owe it, indeed, not alone to ourselves, but to those who are to come after us. It is the first and indispensable step toward a vindication of our sullied title to the world's respect and favor. Let it be taken promptly and nobly. Let it be taken with a force and unanimity that, while they effectually crush the rising spirit of lawlessness in our midst, and elevate the drooping spirit of order into its ancient and rightful supremacy, shall silence forever the resounding voice of calumny and reproach. Argument and appeal, however, are alike unnecessary. The citizens of Louisville need no incitement or persuasion from the press to discharge a duty which the whole sum of their obligations to both God and man is already urging them with resistless might to perform.

CROPS IN TEXAS .- The Galveston News, of the 7th instant, has intelligence from various parts of the interior of recent and abundant rains, not only fa vorable to navigation on the rivers but to the growing crops. A gentleman direct from Austin, where as also throughout the upper country, they have had fine rains, says that the prospects are now really encouraging, though a week or two ago the people were reported to be on the point of starvation, without any prospect of making crops this year. Corn of the third planting is now up, with a good stand, and growing finely. There are equally favorable accounts from the upper valley of the Trinity, which river is rapidly rising, and will soon be navigable

The David White.—This splendid steamer arrived night before last, making the trip up in a little over six days. Among her passengers were the Ravel troupe. We are indebted to her attentive clerks for the usual favors. The White will return to New Orleans this evening. Capt. McGill needs no recommendation. He is a careful officer and a generous and kind gentleman. His boat offers the very best accommodations.

The D. A. Given .- The regular Nashville packet D. A. Given arrived yesterday morning. She is advertised to return to Nashville last evening. The Given is a regular and the only Louisville packet in the trade, and we hope will get a full load.

MUSICAL SOIREE AT REV. MR. BECKET'S .-We were present on Friday night at a very delightful musical entertainment given by the pupils of Mr. Hast at the school of Rev. Mr. Becket in the country. We cannot speak too highly of the merits of the fair performers. They evinced not only fine musical talent, but rare and even wonderful culture. Their extraordinary proficiency is equally flattering to themselves and to their teacher, Mr. Hast, unquestionably one of the most gifted and skillful musical professors in the whole country. Several amateur musicians from the city were present, and kind-We copy the paragraph above from a leading ly contributed their aid to diversify the inplete and gratifying success.

The school of Mr. Becket is some five or six miles distant from the city on the Lexington turnthe Ledger, is a glorious fellow, who deserves all pike, in a most healthful and charming vicinity, that can be said of him. We are not at all surprised that it is cherished as an ornament by the surrounding community. It richly deserves to be.

> In our comments on Saturday morning on an article in one of the city papers, we said that the law upon which the three slaves on trial were acquitted was not a statute law of Kentucky, but a portion of the ancient common law of the country from whence our jurisprudence is derived. We are since informed that the law complained of is to be found in our criminal code of practice, and that its provision renders the testimony of an accomplice insufficient to convict, unless it is corroborated by other evidence tending to connect the accused with the commission of the crime with which they stand charged. It was in this corroboration that the testimony on the part of the Commonwealth in the late trial of the four negroes here for murder failed. Neither the court nor the jury are in any degree being sworn to execute it as it is written, and not as the community would desire it to be in any given case.

Dr. GEO. W. SHIVELL .- Our young friend Dr. Shivell, we understand, has just opened an office and drug store at Eminence, Henry County. We wish him early and complete success. We do not know of a more studious, amiable, correct, sensible, and truly excellent young man anywhere, and, if he does not meet with instant and permanent encouragement from the community in which he has opened his professional career, it will not be his fault. He will most certainly deserve success whether he commands city on Saturday and was drowned. it or not. But we hope and believe that he will do

INDIAN WAR IN FLORIDA. -Rumored Death of Billy Bonlegs .- The Tampa (Fla.) Peninsular of the scouting parties from which it has just heard, one under Captain Johnson and the other under Captain Sparkman. The former's killed three Indians and captured five, and the latter's captured one squaw and her child. The Indians are supposed to be in a starving condition. The guns which have been taken away from them in their late fights are in a worthless condition, stocked by themselves, with the barrels tied into the stocks, the locks tied on to the barrels and the flint tied into the hammer; and it is said they will miss fire nine times out of ten. The volunteers destroyed all their provisions, corn, &c., the past summer, and they can get nothing to subsist on but what they kill with those poor guns, which is but little. It is rumored that General Billy Bowlegs is dead.

A NOVEL SUIT .- Legal proceedings have been commenced against the city of Chicago by Messrs. Pahlman, Rosseter & Smith, for the recovery of alleged damages in loss of property by a fire which not long ago destroyed the drying house at their pail factory, on which occasion, as they allege, the fire companies present were instructed by the chief engineer not to operaie their machines to protect the property of the firm, because upon a previous occasion no acknewledgment had been made of the services of the department, in the shaps of a donation, when a former dry house was destroyed and the other buildings with difficulty saved from destruction.

PENNSYLVANIA PUBLIC WORKS. - It has been announced that both Houses of the Legislature of Pennsylvania had passed the bill for the sale of the main line of the public works, extending from Philadelphia to Pittsburg. The price to be paid is $7,500,000; but if the Pennsylvania railroad company should buy it, as they probably will do, they shall pay besides the sum of $1,500,000 in five per cent. bonds. In consideration of this extra charge they are to be released from all taxes on tonnage as well as their property, except for city, borough, county, township, or school purposes.

We have heard considerable remark in the city oncerning the absence of the four negroes, charged with the murder of the Joyce family, from the court room when the jury returned the verdict. It has been alleged that they were sold to negro traders on the condition of their acquittal. Such is not the case. They were absent by order of the Court, having been indicted of arson by the Grand Jury; and for that offence, which in negro cases is of a capital nature, they would have been tried.

A PARALLEL CASE.—Jesse Comegys has been convicted at Centreville, Md., of a conspiracy in attempting to break the jail and hang negro Dave Seeny. Seeny was tried for murder in the first degree but found guilty only of manslaughter, whereupon a mob attacked the jail with the view of seizing the prisoner and hanging him according to the code of Judge Lynch, but were prevented by the vigilance of the officers, aided by a number of lawabiding citizens.

LATTA'S STEAM ENGINE.—This machine, which was tried here some weeks ago and purchased by the board of underwriters for the city, was received yesterday by the steamer Alma from St. Louis, to which Mr. Latta had taken it for exhibition. It was placed in the steam fire engine-house on Sixth street for safe keeping.

DEBT OF ST. LOUIS .- We learn from the message of the Mayor of St. Louis that the bonded debt of that city on the 1st of April last was $4,857,966. At the same there was due from the city to the differen branches of service the further sum of $326,403, making the total indebtedness of the city $5,183,369.

THE NEWS BY THE GEORGE LAW. - The dates from San Francisco received by this steamer are to the 20th ult. The news possesses but little interest. We give the most important items:

We give the most important items:

A bill providing for the payment of the State debt had passed the Senate of California by a vote of 22 to 2. A rumor had reached San Francisco from Carson Valley that Brigham Young had been compelled to fly from Salt Lake City to save himself from assassination. The difficulty arose from matters relating to the administration of the church property. A Company had been organized in San Francisco for the purpose of establishing a new line of steamships between that port and New York city. The new company propose to convey passengers through for $\frac{1}{2}$10 in the cabin, and $\frac{1}{2}$0 in the second cabin. The present rates of fare are $\frac{1}{2}$250 for a first class passage, $\frac{1}{2}$200 for second cabin, and $\frac{1}{2}$50 for the steerage. The United States District Court at San Francisco had decided the case between Garrison and vanderbilt, requiring the former to deliver to the latter the steamships Cortes, Pacific, Brother Jonathan, and Uncle Sam, belonging to the Accessory

Transit Company.

In regard to mining operations, we have only to repeat what we have before said, more gold will be taken out of our placers during the four or five months ending with April, than has ever been gathered during the like period before. Not only will a larger aggregate amount be extracted, but we believe we may assert there will be better wages realized to the hand, taking the mining community as a whole, than ever before.

The testimony in the impeachment case of Comptroller Whitman has been closed, and the same submitted for decision. A conviction is hardly looked for, since the attendance of Willis, his former clerk, has not been secured.

Cases of insanity and suicide still continue to be of frequent occurrence in all parts of the State.

A report was prevalent in Carson Valley to the effect that a serious dissension had arisen among the Saints at Salt Lake City. It is said that Brigham Young has been compelled to flee the city, to save himself from the fury of his flock. The difficulty had its origin in matters relating to the administration of the church property, we believe.

Oregon Territory.—The late winter has been more stormy and the snow deeper than ever before known; yet it is said that the ice has not been so thick as during some former seasons. It is generally thought the inhabitants will vote to adopt a State form of government, and a constitution prohibitory of slavery. The press of the Territory is warmly engaged in the discussion of these and kindred topics. A municipal election was soon to come off in Portland, whereat a union ticket was likely to be elected. There continued to be much disaffection amongst the Indians in various parts of the Territor. elected. There continued to be much disaffection elected. There continued to be much disaffection amongst the Indians in various parts of the Territory, and many of those gathered on the Reservations were longing to return to their former haunts and habits. The roads in all parts of the country were bad, owing to the late stormy weather. The steamer Clinton had gone up the Willamette, as far as Eugene City, in Lane country, a-much higher point than any boat had previously reached. Capt. Paty, with very little difficulty procured a full cargo of the veritable deposit. He also visited and landed upon two other islands, viz: Jerve's and Howland's Islands, in the vicinity of New Nantucket, and got specimens of guano from them and erected flag-staffs, built a small house upon each of them, in one of which he left some of his boats and implements for getting off guano. The entire cargo is to be shipped to New York per ship Aspasia. She is to leave here in a few days.

INTERESTING FROM NICARAGUA—Gen. Walker's Whereabouts and Fate—Conflicting Rumors—Statement of Col. Anderson.—One of our reporters on Wednesday evening had a few moments' converation with Col. Frank Anderson, who came from sation with Col. Frank Anderson, who came from Aspinwall a passenger per steamship George Law, and who is still suffering some considerable inconvenience from the wounds and injuries he received at the explosion of the steamer Scott, several weeks since. From the Colonel we learn the following highly important particulars. When he left Aspinwall, on the 3d inst., Walker was still in Rivas with some 300 men. Rivas, with some 300 men.

Rivas, with some 300 men.

A day or two previous to his (Anderson) leaving the Isthmus, a letter was received from a private source in San Francisco, requesting General Walker to be sure and be at San Juan del Sur, on the Pacific, three or four days in advance of the usual time of the steamer's arrival at that place from San Francisco, but most to have his expectations raised too cisco, but "not to have his expectations raised too high," and he would there find something to benefit him and his cause. The Colonel also informs us that he heard from another source that the propose he heard from another source that the proposed "benefit" was in the shape of a small sailing vessel fitted up by private enterprise, having upwards of one hundred and fifty men, with a good supply of provisions, arms, ammunition, &c., on board, which Anderson thinks must have arrived ere this time, and been taken charge of by Walker or some one of his representatives. Col. Anderson says that Walker, by means of spies, is enabled to keep up an active communication with the sloop-of-war St. Mary and with San Juan del Sur. By these means he was enabled to keep "posted up." was enabled to keep "posted up."

The Colonel thinks his star is yet in the ascendant, and that the General can work himself and army through the enemy to San Juan at any time he chooses; but as he is still quite easy at 2. vas, he prefers for the present a 'masterly inactivity,' in order to deceive the enemy as to his real intent and purpose until he shall have sufficiently recruited his force to insure his success. The Colonel fured his force to insure his success. The Colonel further says that he came down the river to Aspinwall at the same time that Lockridge's party did, but that he has remained on the Isthmus so as to communicate with and satisfy himself of Walker's position. From all he was thus enabled to learn he gives but little credence to the report from New Orleans by telegraph that "Walker had escaped and taken refuge on board a man-of-war." He thinks it is a fabrication.

is a fabrication.

Other Reports.—One of the officers of the George
Law says that, on leaving Aspinwall, the report was current there that Walker was completely hemmed in on all sides by the enemy in Rivas, and that the Allies were about bringing their guns to bear upon him, in which case there would, he thinks, be little if any hopes for him or his men, of whom he had but about 300, all told. In the event of this rumor being true, the telegraphic report from New Orleans may prove something more than a draft on the imagination, notwithstanding than a draft on the imagination, notwithstanding Col. Frank Anderson's confidence to the contrary.

JEFFERSON CIRCUIT COURT - CHARGE TO THE GRAND JURY .- A grand jury was empannelled and sworn in the circuit court this morning. We understand that this jury was summoned in consequence of the late outbreaks in the city, and the violation of the law by an assemblage of countymen and men from other counties, a few evening's since.

Judge Bullock's remarks, which we give below, were characterized by just indignation against lawlessness, and a strict and imperative charge to the jury to use every effort to bring to a just punishment, the perpetrators of the outrage against law and life.

We hope for the vindication of the law, and for the reputation of our city, that the rioters may be ferreted out and brought to punishment:

Gentlemen of the Grand Jury: It is made my duty by law, to bring to your notice, as occasion may require, such matters of public interest as come within your cognizance.

Since your last adjournment violations of the criminal law have occurred in this city, to which it criminal law have occurred in this city, to which it is my duty to direct your particular attention. You will, no doubt, understand me as alluding to the forcible entry of the public jail of the county on the night of the 14th inst., by an armed mob, and the taking therefrom certain prisoners therein confined, and putting them to death in open defiance of the authority of law.

It is not my purpose to speak of the particulars of anthority of law.

It is not my purpose to speak of the particulars of this transaction or to portray its dangerous and fearful consequences. Suffice it to say that the facts require at your hands a faithful, thorough, and patient investigation. The peace, security, and happiness of society, the life, liberty, and property of the citizen all depend upon maintaining the supremacy of the law.

You need not be told, that without your co-opera-tion the majesty of the law cannot be vindicated nor public justice upheld. It is through you alone, as a part of the machinery of the Government, that those who take the law in their own hands and trample its authority in the dust can be brought to just-

this important and responsible task with all the zeal and energy which the crisis demands.

It is proper that I should observe that all felonies committed within the limits of this city are strictly and exclusively within the jurisdiction of this Court and cognizable by you. The perpetrators of the outrages to which I have alluded, together with their aigers and abettors, are amenable to the law.
You may rest assured that every facility and all the means which the law affords will be placed at your means which the law affords will be placed at your command in furtherance of this object.

Our Canadian neighbors are having a week of troubles. The Hamilton Banner of Tuesday morning says the disclosures made by the three Railway Committees which are now sitting in Toronto, and which are bringing to the light of day an amount of fraud and corruption in connection with railway matters, are almost inconceivable. The Toronto Colonist says the great fact which has been clearly ascertained so far is, that there is great need of a road to the Pententiary from the Parliament House, which is not yet constructed. The Colonist adds that, if these things are allowed to go unwhipped of justice, then may every petty culprit in the land pronounce the law a tyranny, which reaches only a ragged coat, and never by any chance penetrates a carriage. On Monday afternoon the Provincial House of Assembly were thrown into some excitement by an alleged challenge to mo.tal combat between Mr. Cauchon, the late Crown Lands Commissioner, and Capt. Armstrong, of Lloydtown. It appears that the Captain made use of the words, "You are no gentleman," to Mr. Cauchon, whereupon the ex-Commissioner of Crown Lands assaulted him. Subsequently Mr. Gamble called on Mr. Cauchon, to see if the matter could be referred to mutual friends. Mr. Cauchon raised the question in the House of breach of privilege, as to whether Mr. Gamble was justified in carrying him a challenge .-Mr. G. stated that he had not, nor had he any inten tion to carry a challenge, whereupon Mr. Cauchon declared himself satisfied.

FRENCH PROTESTANTS EMIGRATING TO VIRGINIA. Mr. J. C. Underwood, Secretary of the American Emigrant Aid and Homestead Company, reports that Rev. Mr. Lorviaux, a French Protestant minister, has made a purchase of three thousand acres of good land for a congregation of some five hundred of the freedom-loving Waldenses of the High Alps in the southeast part of France, in Monongalia county, Virginia, within eight miles of the Monongahela river rithin twenty miles of the Pennsylvania line. at the moderate price of seventy-five cents per acre. He thinks the report he will bear to the French Protestants will induce many thousands to emigrate to Virginia.

Queen Victoria, though an amiable, excellent woman, abounding in all domestic virtues, is a person of moderate intellect, and of no weight in the Government. Though only thirty-eight years of age, she has already borne nine children. John Bull will pay pretty dear for the empty pageant of royalty if they are all to be provided for from the treasury on the same scale that is talked of for the Princes Royal, who is betrothed to the Prince of Prussia. It is rumored that Lord Palmerston will ask a dowry for her of Parliament of £70,000 a year, besides a magnificent trousseau. Will John Bull stand this?

A NEW FRANKLIN EXPEDITION.—The New York Journal of Commerce is informed that the British Government have refused to loan Lady Franklin the bark Resolute (recently presented to that government by the Americans), to enable her to make further searches in the Artic regions for her husband and his party. She has therefore purchased, at Aberdeen, a new and beautiful screw vacht, under the inspection of Capt. McClintock, of the royal navy, who will command the expedition.

The excitement at Rossville, Staten Island, New York, in relation to the new quarantine location, is intense. Nothing is talked about but the burning of the building last week, and a desire to wreak vengeance upon the commissioners. The Governor's proclamation offering a reward for the detection of the supposed incendiaries was torn down as fast as it was put up. The oyster dealers say no man on the Island would dare betray any of the parties engaged in that affair.

MICHIGAN PINE LANDS .- The pine lands of Michigan are in good demand at big prices. Five sections of well timbered in Lapeer county, on the line of the Lake Huron and Milwaukee Railroad, re- ble for the following: cently brought $50,000. They are thought to have fifty millions feet of best quality of pine timber upon them. The purchasers intend to manufacture eight millions feet of lumber per year.

INTERESTING BAPTISM .- Capt. Holley, a religious master of a vessel, returned recently from a three months' voyage, and such had been the effect of his precept and example, that his entire crew became voted professors of religion, and were baptised on Sunday last in Boston, by a Baptist clergyman.

Mr. E. O. Perrin is not going to Kansas as private secretary to Gov. Walker, as has been currently reported in the newspapers. At the dinner given to Gov. Walker at the Astor House, Tuesday evening, Mr. Perrin said, in reply to a toast, that the public statements which had been made that he was going to Kansas in any official capacity were entire without foundation. He intended to visit that Territory for a short time, but simply as a private citizen and for purposes of observation. If he could contribute anything to the pacific settlement of the difficulties which distract the Territory, he should very gladly do so. He had listened with great satisfaction to the conciliatory and conservative sentiments uttered by Gov. Walker, and believed that an administration conducted upon such principles could not fail to be successful.

The blonde mania is spreading in France with wonderful rapidity, the society for the encouragement of feminine blondes having already an overplus in the treasury of not less than 150,000 francs and give the most sumptuous dinners in Paris. It is said that an auburn blonde, from England, was much admired at one of their reunions. This style is very rare. It is a blonde tinted with gold. Locks of blonde hair of every imaginable shade are ranged in a frame hung conspicuously in the room where the committee hold their sessions. A reward of 25,-000 francs has been promised to any one who will furnish, with proofs of authenticity, the famous lock of hair possessed by Lord Byron, which was said to have belonged to Lucretia Borgia.

THE PEACH CROP .- The Philadelphia Bulletin has reports from various parts of Delaware, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania that there is every appearance of the heaviest crop of peaches ever known. In regard to other fruits the prospect is said to be as favorable or nearly so.

A PAINTED SEA .- In Lieut, Habersham's Narrative of the North Pacific Surveying and Exploring Expedition, entitled "My Last Cruise," we find the following account of this interesting phenomenon:

There was another subject-one of Nature's numerous phenomena—that excited both our surprise and admiration while anchored off Simon's Town.

The whole surface of the harbor would at times the whole surface of the harbor would at times be covered by a greasy, frothy, variously-colored substance, that gave the water a most uncleanly appearance during the day, but which at night caused it to resemble a lake of molten gold. How deep it extended we could not tell, possibly the whole depth of the harbor.

We had observed the same phenomenon while approaching the coast, and had at first been at a loss what to attribute it to. The whole sea was sprinkled with the variously-hued patches, and as we sailed through them we left a wake of fire that was apparent even under the glare of the mid-day sun. It was like sailing over a painted sea in the day time; and at night, when the seas lifted up their lambent crests in all directions, the effect was truly grand. We subsequently attributed their existence to the presence of vast masses of a migrating infusoria, the minute and phosphorescent forms of the largest of which we could readily detect in a drop of the water, by pleque it under an ordinary

And now when we again "launched out upon he sea"—we, and the Vincennes and the poor the sea —we, and the vincennes and the poor doomed Porpoise—we looked around in vain for those living fields—those green and golden and purple plalns—which had extended for miles around us and been composed of an infinite number of living animals—animals which exist only in the microscopic world, and which are of such infinitesimal dimensions that we are told five millions may pass through the eye of a campire needle at the same through the eye of a cambric needle at the time without elbowing each other.

CASE IN NORTH CAROLINA .- The Charlotte (N. C.) Democrat, of the 12th inst., gives the particulars of a horrible affair, which has just been brought to light in the neighboring village of Concord, in Mecklenburg county. It says:

Mecklenburg county. It says:

A quack doctor, known by the name of Nugent, applied to a man to assist him in taking up a child that had been buried a few days before. The man made the request known, and intimated that two little girls, daughters of a very respectable gentleman residing in the vicinity, had been removed from their graves by this man Nugent, for the purpose of extracting medicinal properties from their flesh and bones. To ascertain the truth of the rumor, the father had the graves reopened, and found the coffather had the graves reopened, and found the cof-fins and bodies missing. Of course this created a deep sensation, and we are informed that it was determined to inflict summary punishment upon Nu-gent; but, on visiting his house, he was found very sick and in a dying condition. One report says that he took poison, after learning that his operations were known to the public—and another, that he died from a disease contracted from frequent handling of decomposed bodies.

Nugent died on Wednesday last. He made a statement before death that he had exhumed about sixteen dead bodies in Concord and elsewhere, and after using them (for making medicine) he burned the flesh, coffins, and everything, to prevent detec-tion. His ash pile was examined and teeth and bones found therein.

His theory appears to have been that a medicine could be made by boiling the liver of a human being that would cure liver complaint; and so with regard to other diseases. We learn that Nugent was from Forsythe county, and had been living in Concord about two years. He once lived in this town, we wish formed energed in religing perspective and are informed, engaged in selling peppermint and cinnamon drops. Before he died he gave the names cinnamon drops. Before he died he gave to three or four of his accomplices, one of of three or four of his accomplices, one of whom, a white man named Bogus, was arrested in this place last week and committed to jail.

What the fellow did with the medicine he has been making no one knows. He has agencies in Salisbury and Goldsboro, where one or more of his accomplices reside.

THE NEW GRENADA DIFFICULTY. - The New York Express of the 15th inst. says:

It will be seen by our special correspondence from Panama, to-day, that the New Grenadians are aprehensive of a warlike demonstration from the United States fleet in those waters as a sequel to the discourteous rejection of the propositions submitted by Messrs. Bowlin and Morse. The Government is re-Messrs. Bowlin and Morse. The Government is removing arms and ammunition from Chagres to Aspinwall, while the natives betray a disposition to renew their outrages upon the lives and property of American citizens. In this connection the American citizens. In this connection there are hints of further attempts to throw the railroad trains off the track probably with a view of possessing themselves of the specie from California. But, as the Isthmus, generally, is in a condition of considerable excitement, resulting from the present unfortunate position of affairs, it is presumed all these statements should be taken cum grano salis. At last accounts Mr. Bowlin was on his way home. We hear of him last at Carthagena. The new Gov-We hear of him last at Carthagena. The new Government has just been installed at Bogota, but the proceedings incident to the organization are totally silent touching the dispute with the United States.

Blobbs met with a loss, however, with one of the persuaders. Blobbs had a lovely young Shanghai pullet of boundless ambition. Blobbs bought a perpullet of boundless ambition. Blobbs bought a persuader, and his lovely Shanghai used it. She went upon the nest in the morning. Blobbs saw her go, and his heart bounded within him. Alas! he never saw her come off again. At night he visited the persuader. In the upper compartment was a handful of feathers, a few toe nails, and a bill; in the lower compartment were three dozen and eleven eggs! Blobbs saw it all! Her delicate constitution had been unequal to the effort, and, fired by young ambition, she had laid herself all away!

The "Lady in Black"—More of the Kalloch Case.—
The Springfield Argus learns that it is in contemplation by Mr. Steen, the husband of the "lady in black," and a man with the faith of many grains of mustard seed, to sue the Springfield Republican for slander on the fair fame of Mrs. S. Some preliminary inquiries have been made by Mr. Steen, by letter, and the Argus takes occasion to invite Mr. letter, and the Argus takes occasion to invite Mr Steen to proceed. Rebellious Priest. — An Austrian priest, M. Brun, of the diocese of Passau, has been excommunicated for refusing to read in his Church the bull in reference to the Immaculate Conception. He has published a book, in which he boldly charges with heresy all who have received the dogma, including the Pope. He states that "thousands of priests," if they dared, would and speak act as he had done.

Forty of the prisoners who tried to escape from Sing Sing were subjected to the shower bath punishment; and in addition to the showering, the ringleaders were placed upon the bread and water diet, in a dark cell or dungeon. Dunn, the ringleader, received the infliction twice, with the Croton hose full in his face.

Merchandise in Bond.—The great and unusual amount of merchandise which our custom-house statistics for April showed were going into bond, instead of being thrown directly upon the market, has attracted attention from both the mercantile and the money interest; and, for the purpose of throwing more light upon the subject, we have procured from a reliable source the subjoined comparative state-ment of goods in bond at New York, on the dates set value of unclaimed goods, now in store, "as, in many instances, importers have declined making entry until after first July."

A large proportion of this amount, in bond on the first of May, probably more than half, taking the operations of March and April as criterion, is in dry goods, and we have heard this proportion estimated at twelve to fifteen millions. To absorb the remainder, after the new tariff shall go into effect, we are informed, with good reason for believing, that contracts for large quantities of the goods most affected by the new tariff, have been made for execution after July 1; and, therefore, feel certain that unless the imports from now to that time shall be unpreter July 1; and, therefore, feel certain that unless the imports from now to that time shall be unprecedentedly large, a marked improvement upon the present dullness in trade may be looked for. It is quite probable that the goods in bond July first next, will be valued, at least, at $3,000,000, exceeding three-fold the amount in bond one year previous. But those who would draw a discouraging picture from this fact must not forget that our markets must be quite bare at that time of all the leading articles of imports.—N. Y. Courier and Eng.

RISING IN THE WORLD .- You should bear con stantly in mind that nine-tenths of us are, from the very nature and necessities of the world, born to very nature and necessities of the world, born to gain our livelihood by the sweat of the brow. What reason have we, then, to presume that our children are not to do the same? If they be, as now and then one will be, endowed with extraordinary pow-ers of mind, those extraordinary powers of mind may have an opportunity of developing themselves; and, if they never have that opportunity, the harm is not very great to us or to them. Nor does it hence follow that the descendants of laborers are always to be laborers. The path upward is steep and long, to be sure. Industry, care, skill, excellence in the present parent, lay the foundation of a rise, under present parent, lay the foundation of a rise, under more favorable circumstances for the children. The children of these take another rise; and, by and by, the descendants of the present laborer become gentlemen. This is the natural progress. It is by attention to reach the top at a single leap that so much misery is produced in the world. Society may aid in making the laborers virtuous and happy, by the control of the progress with bringing children up to labor with steadiness, we care, and with skill; to show them how to do many useful things as possible; to do them all in the best manner; to set them an example in indus-try, sobriety, cleanliness, and neatness; to make all e habitual to them, so that they never shall be liable to fall into the contrary; to let them alwaysee a good living proceeding from labor, and thus to remove from them the temptation to get at the goods of others by violent and fraudulent means, and to keep far from their minds all the inducements to hypocriscy and deceit.—Cobbett.

A BLOODY AFFRAY—SHOOTING AND STABBING. Last night about twelve o'clock a bloody affair occurred in a coffee-house on the corner of Fifth and Sycamore streets, which resulted in one man being shot, another stabbed, and a third badly beaten. It shot, another stabbed, and a third badly beaten. It appears, from what we could learn, that a gang of rowdies from the Thirteenth Ward went to work deliberately to attack the proprietor of the house, Joseph Dumas. They went into his establishment, called for liquor, and refused to pay for it. Dumas ordered them out, and, having a few friends present, a fight ensued, which resulted in the defeat of the assailants. They again rallied, after being reinforced, and entered the house once more, when Dumas was seized by the hair of his head and struck. A general fight then ensued. Dumas was stabbed severely in the right thigh and left arm by a man named Patrick Tiernan. He drew a pistol and shot named Patrick Tiernan. He drew a pistol and shot breast. Tiernan was immediately carried off by his friends. Another of the belligerant party, named Dave Butler, was beaten over the head with a club

Officer John Ellis arrested Dumas and Butler, and lodged them in the Hammond street Station House, where their wounds were dressed by Dr. J. Alexander. We could not understand the extent of the injury received by Tiernan. The whole matter will undergo an investigation before the Police Court tomorrow, when the full particulars of the affray will be developed.—Ctn. Enq.

The Home Missionary Society, on Wednesday evening, adopted a report which declares the intention of the Society to deny atd to churches containing slaveholding members, unless evidence is furnished that the relation is such as, in the judgment of the executive committee, is justifiable for the time being. The annual report enlarges upon the difficulty which clergymen in the service of this Society experience in laboring in Southern States.

A CHARGE OF CAVALRY .- The following extract from a letter in a Calcutta paper, narrating the particulars of the encounter between the British and Persian forces, gives a good idea of a charge of

When Forbes, who had commanded this regiment, when Forbes, who had commanded this regiment, gave the order to charge, he and his adjutant, young Moore, placed themselves in front of the 6th troop, which was the one directly opposite the nearest face of the square. The other Moore, Malcolmsons, and Spens came the least thing behind, riding knee to knee, with spurs in their horses' flanks, as if racing after a stag. In the rear of them rushed the dark Spens came the least thing benind, riding knee to knee, with spurs in their horses' flanks, as if racing after a stag. In the rear of them rushed the dark troopers of the 3d, mad to avenge the death of poor Malet at Bushire. In spite of steel, fire, and bullets, they tore down upon the nearest face of the devoted square. As they approached, Forbes was shot through the thigh and Spens's horse was vounded; but unheeding they swept onward. Daunted by the flashes and the fire and the noise and crackle of the musketry, the younger Moore's horse swerved as they came up. Dropping his sword from his hand and letting it hang by the knot at his wrist, he caught up the reins in both hands, screwed his horse's head straight, and then coolly, as if riding at a fence, leaped him at the square.

If, therefore, any man can be said to have been first, the younger Moore is that man. Of course the horse fell stone dead upon the bayonets; so did his brother's, ridden with equal courage and determination. The elder Moore, 18 stone in weight and 6 feet 3 or thereabouts in height, cut his way out on foot.

Malcomson took one foot out of his stirrup when he saw his brother officer down and unarmed for his sword had been broken by the fall) holding on to that, the younger Moore escaped. The barrier once broken and the entrance once made, through it poured the avenging troopers. On and over everything they rode, till, getting clear out, they reformed on the other side, wheeled and swept back—a second wave of ruin. Out of 500 Persian soldiers of the first regular regiment of Fars, who composed that fated square, only 20 escaped to tell the tale of its destruction.

634 do, ded ded moldings; Pacific, Brother Jonathan, and Uncle Sam.—This suit was brought some time ago by libelant to get the above Nicaragua Transit Company's steamers from C. K. Garrison, who took possession of them when the Walker government declared the charter of the Company null and void, under a lien which he obtained by loaning the Company some $40,000 or $50,000. Vanderbilt claims possession of the vessels under a mortgage given to him by the Company for the loan of $90,000. Garrison's counsel maintains that Vanderbilt received the mortgage after the Company had been dissolved by the Rivas decree, and therefore it could not hold good, as there was in reality no Company in existence to give there was in reality no Company in existence to give a mortgage. On the other hand, the opposite coun-sel maintain that the Rivas decree amounts to no-thing, for the reason that it did not come from the legitimate Government of Nicaragua, and that ac-cording to the maritime laws the lien of Garrison could not hold good, as the money was advanced while he was acting as agent for the Transit Company. Judge Hoffman rendered a decision in favor of Vanderbilt, and ordered that the vessels be given up to him unless the case is appealed within ten days. Messrs. Crockett and Page, counsel for Gar-rison, intend appealing the case to the Circuit

The new Archbishop of Paris took the usual oath of office in the Tuileries. At the end of the ceremonial, the Emperor, unexpectedly, threw himself on his knees, before the eminent Cardinal, and solicited his first benediction. The Empress and the Prince Imperial were favored likewise with an affectionate blessing. Napoleon III has completed his fiftieth year, and testifies some religious sentiment.

Courtney Y. James, Esq., son of G. P. R. James, the British Consul for Virginia, was wounded in one of the recent engagements in Nicaragua. Mr. J. was a practitioner at the bar in Richmond, until about two months since, when he left to share the fortune and misfortune of Gen. Walker. His wound is a serious one, though, it is believed, not fatal.

A negro man named John Thompson was at a per-ter-house about three miles from Jersey City, on Monday, when liquor was given him until he was able to drink no more. A man named David Keene, and others, then poured some down his throat. After this they saturated his hair with camphene, and set fire to it. He was then rather roughly handled, and died the same night.

The New York Daily Times says that Chas. McIlwaine, nephew of Bishop McIlwaine, has been appointed private secretary to Gen. Walker; also that

Times also says that Judge Drummond will be tendered the Governship of Utah should McCullough an outrage in Salt Lake City, where a band of bandits entered the U. S. court-room while the court was in session, and, by threats of personal violence, compelled Judge Stiles to adjourn court sine die.

The Judge, previous to submitting, appealed to Brigham Young for protection. That functionary replied that he would not interfere, but let the boys have their way, for the court had already given too much trouble. The greatest excitement prevailed.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared onstrictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here at d there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

STOCK OF PROVISIONS ON THE UPPER MISSIS-SIPPI.—The St. Louis Merchants' Exchange Reporter has the following statement of the amount of mess pork, bulk meat, and lard held in St. Louis and on the rivers above on the 6th inst:

Pork, 10,500 bbls, of which one-half is held by single house in this city.

Lard, 6,500 tierces and bbls, seven-eighths held by one house in this city.
Bacon and Bulk Pork, 8,000,000 lbs, (about onehalf of last year's stock at this time), of which 6,000,000 lbs are held by two houses in this city.

The Reporter also gives the stocks at Cincinnati on the 6th inst., derived from a source there of the greatest reliability, as follows: 3,000 bbls of lard, with very little in the hands of manufacturers; 9,000 bbls mess pork, one-half of which is sold and awaits shipment; 9,000,000 fbs bulk pork and bacon.

The stock here on the 1st inst. was 15,000 bbls, but since more than half of it has been shipped, nearly all on orders for consumption. There are very few sides in market, and the stock of shoulders is moderate. Of hams there is a pretty good stock, but as every description of meat is scarce, a better demand has prevailed for them. There is very little lard in this market.

The Reporter, from which we have above quoted,

It will be perceived that the stocks in St. Louis and above are below those of last year—estimated by many at a half less. Indeed, we learn from one large packer that his amount of bulk meat at this time is 2,000,000 lbs, against 5,000,000 lbs last year same date. Under such circumstances it is hardly probable that any diminution in prices can be effected, high as those prices are. The rates of other meats, as well as the light stocks, preclude any such probability; and it is well known that on account of the price of fresh meats, hams went into consumpthis season much earlier than usual. Advice tion this season much earlier than usual. Advices, too, from all the important domestic markets, as well as foreign, show a simultaneous upward tendency. Our largest operators here concede that this statement of the Reporter is very nearly correct.

The New Orleans Picayune, of the 10th, contains further Mexican advices. We take the following from it:

Advices from the city of Mexico are to the 26th, up to which date we have feel files. The great struggle between the civil and ecclesiastical powers has taken an entirely new turn, the Archbishop, to the surprise of everybody, having left President Commonfort far behind in the work of church reform. The occasion was a decree of the Government which revived an ancient law, providing in certain cases for religious services to the poor free of charge. So far from resisting it, the Archbishop immediately issued a formal circular letter, not only confirming the law but in effect making the priesthood henceforth de-pendent upon voluntary contributions instead of compulsory dues, imposed by the civil authority. Comments on this circular are as numerous as the point of view from which observation is made. Some pretend to see in it a treacherous insincerity, others think the real opinions of the Archbishop have been misunderstood. The Extraordinary thinks the

THE BURDELL MURDER -The following remarks of the New York Times upon the Burdell murder case are just and forcible. We have no idea however that the mystery of the murder in question will ever be revealed, and after all there may be no especial reason for any tremendous excitement in regard to the murder of a rich and rather miserly old profligate in a city where the nightly murders of poorer but far worthier men excite little or no in quiry:

The Burdell Murder.—We trust that our city authorities will immediately offer a large reward for such information as shall lead to the detection of the murderer of Dr. Burdell. There is now no other way in which this can be accomplished, and there is no longer any excuse for our Mayor and Common Council to refuse or delay such action, Previous to the late trial it would manifestly have been improper to prejudge the action of the jury; and the offer of a reward at that time would have been equivalent to a declaration that the parties indicted were not guilty. But this conclusion has now been decisively and finally established. The coroner's inquest, the grand jury, and the criminal courts have signally and utterly failed in their attempts to explore and develoy this terrible crime. It is now time for the Government to interpose and use all the means within its reach for the accomplishment of this object.

As metters, stand now it is perfectly evident that no tempts to exporte and acveropy this terrible canner. It is now time for the Government to interpose and use all the means within its reach for the accemplishment of this object.

As matters stand now, it is perfectly evident that no further efforts will be made to fathom this mystery. No one has any interestinits disclosure. The regular tribunals have exhausted their powers and discharged their duty. The parties accused have been declared innocent. The relatives of the victim have no reason and no disposition to push inquiry into the causes of his death, and are apparently absorbed in the struggle for the property he left behind him. The easer appetite of the public for a victim for justice has been dulled by delay, and has given place to apathy and indifference. Yet there is in the public mind a profound desire for the discovery of the murderer, and a deep conviction that the city and law will be indelibly discraced if such a crime, so committed, is left shrouded in darkness and allowed to go unpunished.

There should be offered at once a reward of five thousand doilars for such information as will lead to the discovery of the assassin. Such an offer might prove utterly unavailing; but if it should, the city would lose nothing in money and would gain something in credit, for it will certainly reflect disgrace upon us if this horrible crime is allowed to pass with no further effort at investigation. But we have strong confidence that such a reward would lead to the detection of the assassin. The disclosures of the recent trial have thrown a good deal of light upon the deed itself, although they have done nothing towards fastening its guilt upon any individual. But they have rendered it almost certain that if it could be ascertained, from 5 o'clock until he returned to his own room, a clue would be obtained which would lead to the defection of his murderer. Now this is precisely the kind of information where and with whom Dr. Burdell spent the evening, from 5 o'clock until he returned to his own room, a clue wou

Under the head of "a happy item" the New Orleans Crescent makes the following notice of the marriage of its local editor, Mr. Israel Gibbons, formerly of this city:

Our versatile "local," our funny man, the dresserup of multitudinous items, has at length himself become the subject of an item, as will be seen by the following announcement:

MARRIED—On Thurs'lay evening, 7th inst., by the Rev. Moynihan, Mr. Israel Gibbons to Miss Mary Brieffer Hore, all of this city.

We have seen him since, and, without any very great apparent effort, he bears his new honors with becoming dignity, and his great accession of happi-ness with due fortitude and resignation. If the truth were known, however, we have no doubt he is pre-cisely in the condition of the man who had to be rolled on the floor and spanked with a shingle every day, in order to correct an excess of bliss, thought to be dangerous.

DROWNED .- The New Albany Ledger of Saturday evening says:

A young man, named Cleland, was drowned, about seven miles below this city, on yesterday. He was on horseback and attempted to cross a piece of back-water from the river, but the water was too ep for the animal, which, it appears, could not im. When the horse sank, Cleland was left struggling in the water, and, not being able to swim, he too was drowned. The body was recovered. The deceased was a worthy young man, highly respected by his friends and acquaintances.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE OF A YOUNG LADY. - The New Orleans Crescent of the 9th says:

New Orleans Crescent of the 9th says:

We heard yesterday the particulars of an affair which occurred several days previously, but did not then fall in our reportorial way. A beautiful and wealthy young lady jumped from one of the Algiers ferry-boats, when midway over the river, all on account of blighted affection, it is said. A gentleman of this city immediately leaped over after her and saved her from drowning, though the task was one which required both bravery and strength. The current carried them some distance from the boat, and the gentleman had no little difficulty in keeping his own and the lady's nostrils above water; but he kept paddling manfully, and was at length safely hauled on board the ferry-boat with his dripping hauled on board the ferry-boat with his dripping burden of loveliness and despair.

To the Editors of the Louisville Journal:

LOUISVILLE, May 16, 1857.

GENTLEMEN: As none steps forward to suggest some corrective of the fell spirit which reigns over us, I deem it my duty to propose a plan for the future prevention of such scenes as disgraced our city Thursday night. It is immaterial from whence sprung the feeling which finally led to the commission of such a horrible outrage. Our duty is not to trace its origin in former years, but to crush it out. A depraved and reckless spirit now pervades the whole community, and the good and true men must remove the taint which hangs over us, or give up the city to anarchy and lawlessness. Let the Mayor issue a proclamation calling upon the law-abiding citizens, capable of doing military service, to enroll their names at his office, and pledge themselves to answer his summons, well armed, and ready for duty. A signal should be fixed upon, which in all future time will notify them when their services will be needed. If something of this kind is done, the ruffians at home, as well as from abroad, will think twice before they attempt again to invade the majesty of the law, or sully the honor of Kentucky, as they have done. We should have volunteer companies composed of those citizens who are known to be trustworthy enough to have arms confided to to be trustworthy enough to have arms confided them. FROM MEXICO. - Two days' later news from Mexico is received by way of Havana. The people of the capital were much concerned about the rejection of the Forsyth treaties. A rumor prevailed on the 22d ult. that the Archbishop had given in his adhesion to the new constitution. The Mexican Extraordinary of that date, referring to the rejection of the Forsyth treaties, says:

The public opinion, both in Mexico and the United States, induced by the newspapers, in reference to the fate of the treaties at Washington, is entirely erroneous. Colonel Butterfield, the Commissioner on the part of Mexico, has returned to this city, and bears with him to this Government the most friendly assurances of the desire of the United States to assist Mexico, not only in her financial need, but to back her in her most serious contingencies.

A Rebellion in the Church -A decree of the Government was issued some days since, reviving and erhiment was issued some days since, reviving and enforcing certain ancient regulations, whereby the clergy were obliged to administer the rites of marriage, burial, the holy sacrament, &s., to the poor free of charge. In pursuance of this decree the Archbishop issued his order to the same effect to the curates. We understand that the latter have in a body refused to obey this order, and have resigned their devices to evid convolving with its. their charges to avoid complying with it.

Advices from Panama state that letters received there mention a rumor to the effect that American fillibusters had taken possession of the port of Guaymas, in Sonora.

GOVERNOR WALKER'S PROGRAMME.—The New York Herald furnishes the following as the course of policy to be adopted by Gov. Walker in Kansas: Gov. Walker's programme is to allow the pro-slavery party to go on and frame their slave State constitution; to allow the free State party, at the same time, to hold as many conventions and pass as many indignation resolutions as they please, and to throw all the proceedings of both parties into the next Congress, with a splendid manifesto in behalf of his new compromise. And what is that? The of his new compromise. And what is that? The simple scheme of giving the lion's share of Kansas, as now organized, to the free State party for a free State, and of forming the boundaries for a new slave State by adding to a small slice of southern Kansas a large slice from the splendid Indian country south of it; the slave State and the free State to come into By this arrangement it is supposed that both the pro-slavery and free State politicians, in getting the Congressmen and other spoils of a new State, will be satisfied, and that the speculators in lands, town lots, white settlers and niggers will also be satisfied, and above all, that a great treaty of peace will follow between the North and the South. This is the real plan of Gov. Walker. The other plan of abiding by the Territorial laws and of sustaining the rights of the people, &c., is only the tub thrown out to amuse the whale and the gudgeons.
